ONLY A SHORT SESSION HELD

Convention Adjourned for the Carnival.

TREAT-GREGORY CASE TO-DAY.

It Will He Decided and the Legislative Report Resumed - Judge Green Pays Richmond a Pretty Tribute.

Little or nothing was done in convention circles yesterday. No committees succeeded in getting quorums, and the convention proper was not in session more than twenty minutes. Fifty-nine members, eight more than a quorum, answered to their names, and after the relimitaries of the morraing hour were disposed of a resolution was offered by Mr Winers and adopted, providing or the excusing of six of the pages from cuty each day during the Carnival.

The body met at noon. There were a number of Democratic leaders on the floor, including Judge S. Houston Letcher, of Lexington; Hon. E. C. Jordan, of Frederick; Dr. S. B. Barham, of Surry, and Captain R. S. Thomas, of Greene. Shortly after convening, Judge Berryman Green, of Danville, submitted a motion, which was adopted by a vote of 26 to 21, to adjourn until 19:30 o'clock to-day. In support of his motion Judge Green made Little or nothing was done in conven-

to adjourn until 10:30 o'clock to-day. In support of his motion Judge Green made a neat little speech, in which he paid a handsome compliment to Richmond city, and raid it was due to her enterprise and the generous marrer in which she had treated the convention for that boly to adjourn one day for the Carnival.

The Treat-Gregory case will be disposed of to-day. Mr. Turnbull will close the debate for the contestee and then the vote will be taken.

CALLED TO ORDER.

President Goode called the convention

President Goode called the convention order promptly at the noon hour. Dr. McIlwaine, delegate from Prince William, offered prayer.

Fifty-nine members answered to the rollcall, and after the journal of Saturday's proceedings had been read and aproved, leave of absence was granted half a dozen members.

Under the call for memorials and petitions, several were presented concerning the granting of license to sell liquor and the appropriation of State funds to sec-brian institutions.

Delegate Thomas H. Barnes in presenting a liquor license petition raised quite a laugh by announcing that it was use-a laugh by announcing that it was use-less for him to say that he most heartily and cordially endorsed it.

Mr. Eugene Withers asked for im-mediate consideration of a resolution which he then offered, empowing the ser-grant-at-arms to detail each morning three pages to serve the convention dur-ing the day, and give leave of absence to the other six during Carnival week. The resolution was adopted unanimously. Mr. Withers was immediately surrounded by a congratulating and grateful group of happy pages.

MADE A PRETTY SPEECH.
Judge Green moved that the convention adjourn until this morning at 10:20 o'clock. He said that he offered the resolution on his own responsibility and without hav-ing consulted with any other member. He briefly gave his reasons—fiirst, as a matter of respect to Richmond, and, sec-ond, as a precaution against unadvisable action by so small a number of members. action by so small a number of members. He said the Carnival, now about to be opened so auspiciously, was an event of great interest to the citizens, not only of the Capital city, but of the whole State. He thought an adjournment was 3 courtesy due the city, which had the enterprise and public spirit to inaugurate one of the grandest spectacular events ever seen in the South. He referred in a graceful manner to the many courtesies that had been extended to the members of the convention, individually and collectively, by the citizens of Richmond by its Chamber of Commerce; its official, social and religious organizations. He, for one, would take pride in officially recognizing the opening day of the Carnival not only as a tribute to Richmond's enterprise, but to the people of the whole State, who were here in abundance and who felt a pride in the week's doings. He then called attention to the fact that the roll-call showed only fifty-nine mem-bers present, and noted the fact that many were going out as soon as their names were recorded as present, and said within ten minutes there would not be a corporal's guard. He said that the question under consideration being one involving the title to his seat of one of the most honorable members of the conven-tion, it was of the highest importance that the debattee be heard by a full house,

The motion was then carried, the vote twenty-seven to twenty-one-showing that eleven members had left in the short space of time that had clapsed since rollcall. The convention stands adjourned until 10:30 to-day.

He thinks he lives, but he's a dead one. No person is really alive whose liver is dead. During the winter most people spend nearly all their time in warm, stuffy houses or offices or workshops. Many don't get as much exercise as they ought, and everybody knows that people gain weight in winter. As a rule it is not sound weight, but means a lot of flabby fat and useless, rotting matter staying in the body when it ought to be driven out. But the liver is over-burdened, deadened—stops work. There you are, with a dead liver, and right now is the time for a dead liver, and right now is the time for resurrection. Wake up the dead! Get all the filth out of your system, and get ready for the winter's trials with clean, clear blood, body, brain free from bile. Force is danger-ous and destructive unless used in a gentle, of them have been promptly exonerated as soon as she looked upon them. Perhaps two were taken before her at Culpeper, and yesterday she came to this city with her husband and Sheriff H. W. Pullism, of their county, to view another who was in custody at Emporia on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. Governor Tyler ordered that he be brought here, and Sergeant Samuel Robinson, of Emporia, arrived over the Coast Line with him last night, and being met by Detective Sergeant A. M. CARNIVAL WEEK AT BIJOU.

A Strong Bill Presented for the Benefit of Visitors.

One of the best shows that has been one of the best shows that his octa seen in Richmond at the Bijou is the at-traction the management of the popular Broad-Street theatre offers the public for this week, and the best part of the arrangement is that a matinee is to be given every afternoon during the week, and that the starting time at night has been set back time enough to allow folks to see the Carnival parades and then see the vaudeville show and get back on the streets in time for more sight-seeing.

opened with a matinee and The week opened with a matinee and night performance yesterday, and the usual large audiences were entertained. It is indeed one of the best shows that Mr. Wells has put together. There is nothing tiresome, but to it all there is that delightful novelty that makes a show absolutely refreshing. There is real com-edy, novelty, acrobaticism and music in the programme, and any act is interest-

The bill is made up of eight acts. There are European novelty numbers and the cream of American comedy talent. There s good singing and excellent dancing novel music, and all that goes with the modern up-to-date vaudeville bill. Welsh, Frances and Company present a neat and Rughable one-act comedy playlet, the Yale Duo gives a splendid exhibition of clever work in handling Indian clubs, and the Vitagraph shows all of the latest McKinley funeral views, together with an assortment of moving pictures that are interesting. The Brownings present a clever sketch, introducing many laugh provoking situations, and they sing all of the brand new comedy and coon songs. The three Brooklyns, an act direct from the pleasure palaces of Europe, present a unique musical novelty. They appear as scissors-grinders, but they grind out music that makes enthusiastic applause. Mile. the Vitagraph shows all of the latest ic that makes enthusiastic applause. Mile Chester and her statue dog presents novelty that is indeed a feature of th bill. This dog is a pure white hunter, and he has been trained in all the movements of the hunting dog, and with his mistress makes very interesting living pictures. This act is worth seeing. It is indeed one of the features of the week. McMahon and Chappeile contribute a singing and dancing specialty that is one of the cloverest yet seen in Richmond.
The three Melrose Brothers are very good as acrobats. They perform a routine of new feats, and they are applause winners. All told, the show is an excellent one, and worthy of Carnival week scale of prices is popular, and seats for any evening or matinee can be secured
